BEST BET OF DAY

Race #7

(5) FOX ROX

Ran a monster race last time out and now drops down just a little bit to the $18,000 level. Gets Morales back as the pilot. This older hard knocking gelding has made $365k lifetime and $130k of that was over the strip here at PID. He gave a strong group of foes all that they could handle last time, and comes back in here loaded for bear.

Race # 8

(5) Cee 'N O

Mike Rogers has this horse training lights out at the moment. The tries on the dirt were fruitless and now he returns to a surface that he loves. He is 66% ITM on the Presque Isle surface, and the return home looks like a winning one. The biggest question is can he win off the layoff?
