Race #6

(6) Noble Weed

The Potts trainee looks to graduate here after two very strong finishes. He gets in here a lot easier than the first two times and looks to be the absolute best of this bunch. I've been on this horse from the beginning and I truly think that today is his day to don the cap and gown. Single in all of your exotic plays.

SPOT PLAY

(5) Bluegrass Ball

He drops back in here for $8,000, after winning two in a row. He has speed and Gallardo, back in the irons. He looks to be the best in here and is 8/12 in the money at the distance and 11/15 at PID. The Brooks Barn is shredding it up, and this horse will be at short odds..
