Race #5

PEGGY N JUDY

Matt Kintz brings this mare back after a winter layoff and wins. That doesn't happen that much here at PID. He puts her right back into the same spot and after that very good performance last time, she should gallop here. Matt Kintz is 26% 2nd off of the layoff and this mare has 7 wins from 16 starts over the strip.

Race # 1

(2) Art of the Dream

He ran very well 3 back, going a mile (Today's Distance), for $12,500. Both the 1st and 2nd place finishers that race came back to win their next races. He has been solid since then running against some tough foes. Katy Cheeks is a 40% trainer after being the beaten favorite. He gets in easier today, and should grab a picture.
