Race #6

REEDER

Darien Rodriguez has this horse at the top of his game this meet. He is going for his 3rd in a row today, not only does he have speed, he can also sit just off of the pace and move when needed. He will no doubt be sitting just off of the pace of Red Hot Looks. Gallardo chooses Reeder over Red Hot in this contest, as he has ridden both to victories in each of their last races.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 2

(6) DEEP THINKER (IRE)

Drops in here from the $25,000 level and now cut down in half to the $12,500 level. She was the betting favorite last out and was beat 2 ¼ lengths. She gets major class relief here and looks to be the very best in this spot. Connelly, gets Morales back in the irons, and with this aggressive move, looks to get her picture taken today with Deep Thinker (IRE).
