Race #7

(1) REDEEM MY HEART

This filly has been nothing short of wonderful for Tim Girten this year. She looks to be the speed of the race today and should dictate how everything goes in this event. She beat up on her fellow PA Bred's and then proved her prowess in the open 1X. This Filly looks to be the real deal, but will be at verv. verv short odds in here.

Race # 5

(4) ULTIMATE BARONESS

The class of the race, she drops down from the $12,500 level to the $6,250 level. She won easy that day, but will still have to start just a little bit earlier than that day, due to this event being at 6 furlongs vs. 6 ½. She is 9/15 "In the Money" at PID, retains Morales, and Leland Hayes has been ripping it up at this Venue.
