Race #3

CARAMEL MARTINI

This filly absolutely destroyed the field last time out winning by 10 $\frac{3}{4}$. Lance Stokes brings her back into the 1X with a ton of confidence in her abilities. She should make short work of this group and gets the services of the "Magic Man" Mario Pino once again as her Pilot. Stokes is a 38% trainer here at the meet.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 6

(1) Navy Armed Guard

This horse ran a strong third against a very tough field of competitors, the first two finishers, (English Minister & Irish Valor) both came back to win their next starts. He should sit just off the pace and pounce when need be. He gets Gallardo as the Pilot, and that makes me like him even more.
