(1) Get Nauti

This filly exits the N2L for $12,500 with a 7 ½ length win as the favorite. She won like a less than even money favorite that day, and now makes the jump to the NBL for $25,000. She gets Gallardo back as the filly, and looks to add to her resume today. She will need to beat a hard charging Watch Her Strut, who carries a ton of back class with her. Vindicta has only had one start here at PID but it was so impressive that I opted for her over the aforementioned Watch Her Strut. You may get a little bit of a price on her too.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 7

(3) NANTUCKET RED

The class of this field, Nantucket Red has run against some very tough horses in the recent past. She is also very well traveled, having run at Keeneland and Gulfstream. Todd Beattie has the horse at her best right now and she should win in this spot tonight.
