Race #5

(7) WAPITI WAY

Trainer Darien Rodriguez has this horse in great form as of late. He won a very good AOC $40k last out and now enters into the Alw 1X today. He is somewhat versatile, as he can be on the lead or he can sit just off of it. If he replicates that race in the AOC, he should be much the best and get the victory today.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 3

(7) BURKIE

The class of the field here with racing experience at Saratoga and Belmont, Conditioner Danny Conway drops this horse in for half the tag at the $6,250 level. He gets Morales as the Pilot today, and along with being his trainer being 33% with Maidens, Burkie looks as if he is the pick today.
