BEST BET OF DAY

Race # 1

(1) TEXAS MUSIC

This mare is an absolute speed machine, these other girls are going to have to have their running shoes on if they want to beat her. A very sharp claim by Joe Martin four races back, this mare has been an ATM machine ever since then. Not only does she have the speed of the speed, she also has a good deal of back class. The one to beat.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 7

(3) IRONY OF REALITY

This track record holder at 1 mile & 1/16th drops back into the SOC $16k out of the Allowance $35k. She faces some common foes in here, but the way that she has been running for Conditioner Ron Potts, this doesn't seem to be a problem. If this race sets up for her the way that it should, with speed from Distinctive Flower and Silent Sofia, her style should allow her to win this event this evening, as she loves PID and gets Villa Gomez back as her Pilot.
