Race #3

MINI SALA

This horse is an absolute MONSTER here at this track. Danny Conway, looks to have gotten this horse in fantastic shape and he just keeps going right to the Winner's Circle. He only ever seems to do what is needed to win, not because that's all that he has, its more that it's all that he wants to do. He is extremely talented at this level.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 6

(6) The Tortoise

This horse drops right back into the $12,500 after finishing a solid second here at Presque Isle last out. He ran a big speed figure, and looks to be the best in this spot today. He has solid back class, and he shortens up in distance today, which may help due to him fading at the very end in 2 of the 3 last races that he has run.
