Race #8

OLDZFOURFORTYTWO

This horse is the absolute class of the field, a former stakes winner, he now drops to the bottom and will show his prowess against this group. He has been in against some tough company at this level, horse like Golden Emperor, and Betweenhereandcool. He won't face those types in here today.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 4

(1) ART OF THE DREAM

This horse has continually moved forward off of the previous race. The Katy Cheeks bran is firing on all cylinders right now, as she has won a race each of the last two days. She is by Artie Schiller, and has shown an affinity for the Tapeta in the past, 4 of 5 in the money here at PID.
