Race #1

STEVIS MAN

This horse is the absolutely on his game right now. He is going for his fifth in a row after changing barns back to John Bourke after the claim. John knows this horse quite well, and liked him enough to claim him back. I'm on the bandwagon, and I look for him to replicate that last race.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 8

(4) EVERYBODY LOVES ME

Conditioner Rory Barron is not averse to putting a horse in a spot to be competitive. He is doing just that here with Everybody Loves Me. This filly has a ton of back class and did run well her first out here at PID. She came back and faltered at the same price, thus the reason for the drop. She looks the best in this spot, especially with Gallardo as Pilot.
