BEST BET OF DAY

Race # 3

(4) DON'T BE SO SALTY

This class older horse has amassed over $366k in earnings and has shown a true affinity for this racetrack over the years. He is by far the standout in this race, and even though he makes a precipitous drop from the AOC to the Nickel claiming level, he should gallop against this field.

SPOT PLAY

Race # 1

(2) CLASSY KINGDOM

This first time starter has been working lights out lately. She is by a sire who's progeny have been ripping it up here at PID this meet. She gets the services of TOP JOCKEY Gallardo in here and should be able to don the Cap and Gown this evening and graduate from the Maiden ranks. I am hopeful for at least 3/1 on her in here, as much of the win money will be pointed towards the #1 and #4 in this event.
