Race #3

(4) TEXAS MUSIC

The fastest mare on the grounds returns today and drops out of the SOC and into the claiming ranks. She should find this a much easier spot, but it looks as if she will be hounded by Alexandra Kay, as she has a fast turn of foot also. Texas Music is the class here, and they will have to run her down in order to snatch victory from her. I don't see that happening in this event.

(7) ENTHRONED

This filly did not break well last time out and found herself working very hard getting back into position. Due to that she wound up third only beaten 3 ¾ lengths. There isn't a tremendous amount of speed in this race and if she breaks well she may find herself close to the lead, where she needs to be in order to win. It is her race to lose.
