Race #7

(8) JOHNNY CAB

A winner last out in a hard fought battle with Mikado, these two will face off again in this event. Regardless of that, Johnny is still has the edge not only due to the win last out, but with his prior back class. In addition, he is perfect in the money over the PID strip and at the distance. He will most likely be the odds on favorite, so use him as a key in your exotics.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race # 5

(5) CALL HOME

Conditioner John Tebbutt decides to get ultra-aggressive here and drop this horse in to the $17,500 claiming ranks after being in an extremely tough MSW at SAR. Class relief here is the key, and if this horse has just a little bit of talent and adheres to the Tapeta, he should be very competitive in this spot. He did show good speed in his debut, but faded, he may find himself winging it on the lead with Keylargo, his main competitor in this race.
