Race #7

(7) OLDZFOURFORTYTWO

A former Stakes Winner, this horse has remained a solid runner throughout his career. He was just claimed back by his previous connections, as they thought that much of him to take him back to their barn. He has rewarded everyone who has had him and now he is back in one of the hottest barns here at PID. He looks to be a winner tonight, after just getting beat last out by a length to Life Mission. Regular rider Eddie Dominguez is back in the irons.

SPOT PLAY of the Day

(5) TOMA

A solid horse with good back class, he is dropping way down in here to the $6,250 level from the $16k level. Two consecutive bullet works and it looks as if he is very legitimate in this spot. He is 3/5 ITM at the distance, and will get the late rider change to Walber Alencar.
