Race #6

(6) CAMEL MARTINI

Just beat 1 ½ last out to Inthemidstofbiz, that mare came right back to win her last start, and that's always a good sign. Lance Stokes knows his craft and knows it well, as this Mare has been a beast for him over this strip. 6/7 ITM here at PID, she is also perfect ITM at the distance. She has a ton of class and gets the man who knows her the best, Mario Pino. Love her in this race tonight.

Race #5

(10) ROMAN CITY

This filly makes her debut tonight at PID, a daughter of City Zip, they love this surface and in addition she is dropping down from the $16k level to the $6,250 level. A big drop, after facing much tougher in her last few races. You get the Meet's leading rider Pablo Morales, and she is coming out of a barn that has not been off the board here this year.
