BEST BET OF DAY

Race #4

(3) K C ROCKET

With several solid efforts on the Turf at FG this Winter, K C Rocket will make his first attempt over the Tapeta surface today. Claimed last out at OP for $30k, and according to his PP's this son of Kantharos looks like he can probably run on any type of surface. Tons of back class, and Gallardo in the irons, he may just be very hard to beat today.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race # 1

(2) PRINCESS TINE (FR)

The last two times that this horse was on the Tapeta was at AP and she finished quite well. A win for the MCL $25 and then right back in for a solid second as the beaten Favorite for $20k. The Filly is extremely versatile, and should fit this group quite well today, especially at this level. A solid pace scenario on the front end would greatly benefit her closing type of style.
