BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #5

(5) P H FACTOR

Conditioner Larry Rivelli brings another monster into PID, and this one looks to be the best today. By "The Factor", a tremendous Tapeta Sire, this gelding gets Loveberry in the irons today, and looks to continue his domination in these SOC races. 11/15 ITM over synthetic surfaces, he looks to add to his resume here against foes of lesser quality. A single in your exotics, as he will be the prohibitive favorite.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race # 3

(7) STRETCH RUNNER

Arriving in here from MVR, this very useful horse comes forward from the Mike Pappada barn armed and ready to go. He has been running throughout the winter and spring and should be tight for his return to PID. He has been outstanding here over our strip, 3 of 4 ITM and all 3 were victories. Showing the affinity for this surface, and being reunited with Erin Walker, makes him my pick for today.
