BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #1

(4) CROSTOWN SHOOTOUT

A PID Specialist, and popular at the claim box, Crosstown Shootout has been in very good form as of late. In his last two starts he has run second, to Guaco and Atlantic Sun respectively, and both of them are very nice horses. He won't face foes like that today, and Conditioner Tim Girten is 29% in the return as the beaten favorite. Morales back aboard, he is my pick for a picture in the Winner's Circle.

SPOT PLAY of the DAY

Race #6

(5) WORBOTHOR

AKA at the "Win Machine", Worbothor just continues to wow us her at PID. Coming off the bench last start, he showed his true grit and tenacity to win after a six month layoff, all the while doing it at a distance that he doesn't even really like. Today he goes post ward with an even more favorable distance (8 wins) in his gunsight, and victory looks to be very attainable against this group.
