BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(6) CLAW

He drops down into bottom level claimers for the first time today, after running in some very tough heats against much better. He threw a huge speed figure last time out, finishing 4th, and that figure bests all the rest last race out. Only beat 1 ¼ Last time out against some absolute beasts, this boy looks like the very best in this race today. Most likely this horse will be the target of a hostile takeover this afternoon.

SPOT PLAY of the DAY

Race # 1

(5) RUNAWAY BREEZE

Dropping from the clouds today to the basement, Runaway Breeze looks to rebound from a lackluster effort last time out. Conditioner Kevin Rice will get some much needed class relief here and will most likely be 2/5 on the board. She was just outclassed last race in that AOC, but looks to be the one to beat here. It's the obvious choice, and it looks as if Runaway Breeze will most likely find a new home after the first race today.
