BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #5

(1) TRAVELLER

Named after the horse that carried Robert E. Lee through the Civil War and to surrender at Appomattox Court House, this Traveller has show the grit and determination as did his famous counterpart. Running very solid here at PID, and just missing last time out, he looks to be the best here in this event. He's versatile and can lay just off the hot pace that should develop on the front end. The Meet's Leading Rider aboard too!

SPOT PLAY of the DAY

Race # 8

(4) NO DRAMA

The betting favorite the last two races, he will face a little easier group this time. Ayala is back aboard for Conditioner Mike Rogers, who is going to change things up today and shorten him up. This may be the magic elixir that he needs to get his picture taken today, but he still must beat "Over It" in order to get the Kodak Moment.
