BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #5

(3) ZILLION

A solid second in his last start, this PA Bred Son of Munnings jumps right back into the same spot as before, without the threat of facing Jo Jo Hans again. With just enough speed in this race, he should track the pace and make his move midstretch. Conditioner Tim Girten is batting almost 83% ITM this year. Gallardo back as the Pilot, and it looks as if all systems are go.

LONGSHOT PLAY

Race # 8

(2) SHEER ALICE (GB)

The daughter of Kodiak (GB) makes her debut at here at PID. Her record doesn't really confirm much enthusiasm, but you have to look a little deeper into the past performances. First and foremost she is on a precipitous drop from $25k to down to $7.5k. She has only run over the Tapeta one other time, (1/8/22) and that was for MSW at GP against much tougher, getting beat only 7 lengths. Today we get Gallardo and Blinkers now on, so if you can get 5/1 or better you have to take the shot
