BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #5

(5) SAVE the DRAMA

Knocking on the door quite loudly last race, Samurai Legacy (a repeat winner) just proved too much for him, but the good news is that he won't have to face him again today. With superior speed figures of this field, he looks like a man among boys in this event. He will be very low odds, so a single in your exotics would be the right play with him.

(1) FLIGHT to PARADISE

This son of Temple City comes into PID in very good form, and he's throwing up some very good speed figures along the way. This horse had a good campaign at TP this winter over the Tapeta in northern KY. Now with a jock change of Alencar in the irons, this horse looks to the best in this spot. Alencar has been riding lights out as of late, and he should follow the pace that will be established on the front end. His style should fit this race perfectly.
