BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #7

(1) SHOSHANAH

After exiting the Open MSW, Shoshanah showed up in her own sandbox (PA Bred) last out and proved to be a monster. Conditioner Kyle Horlacher is looking for even bigger things later on with this very talented filly, but every journey starts with a first step, and that step is in this 1X today. By a Pennsylvania Stalwart Stallion, Wegelia's progeny have excelled here at PID over this surface. She could be a future star.

SPOT PLAY OF THE PLAY

Race # 1

(1) Cathmor

He had a rough trip last time out, and in addition ran against a tougher crowd. This horse always shows up and gives 100% each time. He has had a trip over the strip now, and should be primed and ready to roll against a little softer group today. Trainer Mike Pappada said that he I doing well and he likes his chances today. He has run against some tough hombres in the recent past, and hung right in there with them.
