BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(1) JO JO HANS

He dominated the MSW last out in the open version. He drops into the PA Bred 1X this afternoon, where he will play in his own neighborhood sand box, before he tackles open company. The way that he won last out makes him the obvious choice for today's festivities. Conditioner Ron Potts feels as if this horse keeps getting better each day.

(6) FAST FASHION

A solid race last out here at PID, only beaten 2 ½ lengths that day, Trainer Mark Hoffman decides to get aggressive and cut this horse in half with the claiming tag, down to $7,500 from $15K. She gets some more distance back today, which should suit her style a little bit more than sprinting. She was bet pretty well last out, and Gallardo has decided to return to the saddle. They will have to catch her late, as she looks like the speed in here.
