BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(2) WOODCHUCK

A huge effort last race out, Woodchuck posted a massive speed figure (95). Dismissed at 4.50-1, he rewarded his backers quite well. Trainer Mike Rogers looks to expand on his bankroll today, Ayala is back in the irons and the distance should suit his needs. He will most likely have to fend off Goodie Goomer who looks to be his main threat. This horse continues to improve with age, and according to the Trainer, his maturation process in going very well.

SPOT PLAY OF THE PLAY

Race # 1

(5) Studylongstudywrong

Conditioner Mike Rogers drops this Colt right back in to where he was effective in his last start, against a very good Wrote in Stone. He won't face that type of speed today and looks as if he might inherit the lead, in a race void of speed. If races today match those of yesterday, the speed should hold, and that bodes well for this Colt.
