BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #2

(9) GOODTIME ARTIE

He just missed last time out, and Red Hot Conditioner Matt Kintz is going to not get greedy here and put this horse right back in where he belongs. Cutting distance today he has run well over this strip sprinting before. He threw a big speed figure for these types last race and he gets Villa Gomez back as the Pilot, who has been successful with him thus far. A very nice pedigree, top and bottom for the Tapeta, Goodtime Artie looks to don the Cap and Gown today and graduate to the N2L.

SPOT PLAY OF THE PLAY

Race #1

(4) Zillion

He's been knocking on the door ever since his arrival here at PID. A pair of deuces in his last two starts, he was beat by a very legitimate horse in Jo Jo Hans, second race back. Today he won't face horses like that and looks to be the pick of this group. He is perfect in the money over this strip (2 for 2) and his regular rider Gallardo is back in the irons.
