BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(2) DRIFTWOOD

An extremely solid horse at this level, and not to mention, coming out of a strong barn, he looks to be in a very good place here today against these foes. He had a rough trip last race and looks to make amends in here against a softer group than what he faced last time. He is 8/11 ITM here at PID and if he can dispatch of the other speed horse (Hard Count), then the others will have to play "catch me if you can".

SPOT PLAY OF THE PLAY

Race #4

(3) Not Shy

Bred extremely well for this surface, this Daughter of Flintshire (GB) makes a very big precipitous drop down from MSW into the $7,500 ranks. She has run well here at PID before and boasts a 4/5 ITM record here, and Conditioner Teresa Connelly isn't afraid to put horses where they belong in order to win. She gets the Meet's leading Rider in Pablo Morales as the Pilot and it looks like this Filly will graduate this afternoon.
