

July

19th

- Race 1: (2) K's Little Bill
(6) Big Chicken Man
(1) Charlie Charlie
- Race 2: (6) SONG OF INDY
(3) Annie Up Buck
(4) Sweet Moochie
- Race 3: (2) Colonel Poppy
(3) Dontinvademyspace
(1) Legend of Charlie
- Race 4: (2) Star of Shanghai
(3) Tuned Up
(4) Gio's My Dad
- Race 5: (1) Over It
(7) Koosman
(6) Legio
- Race 6: (2) Yadi
(7) Morethansoultitle
(3) Spettacoli (ARG)
- Race 7: (3) The Queen Jules
(5) Digital Footprint
(4) Starship Empire
- Race 8: (6) Cooper's Crescent
(3) Believeinholidays
(8) Fast Fire

BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #2

(6) SONG OF INDY

Conditioner Mike Rogers stretched this Mare out before for the first time last October, and she lead every step of the way that day. He tried it again and had the unfortunate pleasure of running into Happy Bee. She won't have to face that kind of foe in this field and if she isn't pushed hard by Annie Up Buck, this race is her's for the taking. She has far more back class than the vast majority of this field and her class should shine through with this group. Ayala knows her well, and has plenty of pics with her.

SPOT PLAY OF THE PLAY

Race #3

(2) Colonel Poppy

With a precocious pedigree, this 2 yr old played the part in his first race. He couldn't hang with Uncle Jock that day, but did learn a lot from that race and looks poised to go ahead and don the cap and gown and graduate this afternoon, leaving the Maiden ranks. Unless a firster steps up today, I just can't seem to think that anyone in here is able to beat him. The Kintz barn is clicking on all cylinders right now at 58%.

www.presqueisledowns.com

