BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #7

(1) TWIRLING MAMBA

A monster race last time out against a very good "The Sinner is You", only beat a nose at the wire, Trainer Bill Martin will get another crack at the same condition. Claimed for $30k back in the winter at OP, he came into PID with a vengeance and immediately got a victory in his first start here. Villa Gomez is back aboard, and even though this isn't a cakewalk, he is the class of the field.

SPOT PLAY OF THE PLAY

Race #6

(5) Wrote in Stone

Conditioner John Fennessy Looks to have a runner on his hands here with Wrote In Stone. He ran very well last time out against Cloud Play & Mark the Moose, in which he was just overmatched, but still managed to run a solid third that day. He is going to drop back down in here for $20k, against a much lesser group than he faced last time. Fennessy is having a great meet this year with 8 victories already and regular Rider Walber Alencar is riding right now like he's possessed.
