BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #4

(3) THE SINNER IS YOU

Only beat 6 lengths last time out in the Karl Boyes by the best horse on the grounds, The Sinner is You, comes back into a spot where he will be far more comfortable. He's an absolute stone cold killer at this level, and it looks as if the others in here are running for place. Regular Pilot Willie Martinez is back aboard, and Conditioner Eddie Rojas looks poised to pad his win win percentage today.

LONGSHOT PLAY

(3) Beach Pass

A very versatile horse that can really adapt to almost any type of pace scenario, but today he won't have much speed to chase in here so he looks as if he will need to sit just off the pace. He has been very good at this strip with 7/8 ITM finishes here at PID, and now gets the Boy from Brazil in the irons today. Alencar has been riding like he's possessed the past few weeks and will give this horse every chance to be a winner.
