BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(7) TRAVELLER

Never off the board here at PID, he broke his maiden by 8  $\frac{3}{4}$  lengths in an absolute romp. He has been the favorite the last three outings and today looks to be no different. His regular Pilot, Morales is back aboard after another huge week here at Presque Isle. There is other speed in the race here, but they can't match the early foot of Traveller. His Dam, Purely Hot, a stakes Winner here and a Graded Stakes Winner at Woodbine, looks as if she past on her affinity for the synthetic with him.

LONGSHOT PLAY

(1) Flight to Paradise

By an emerging sire line (Temple City) over this strip, "Flight to Paradise" has shown an affinity for this surface. After shipping in from IND last time, he ran a respectable 3rd, while being a target of a hostile takeover. Switching barns and making his first start for new connections, expectations are high today, and if he can lay a little closer to the pace than before, he can beat this field. He should be a solid price in here, as some of the favorites look to be counterfeit.
