BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #2

(7) MOLISE

Incredibly well bred filly coming out of the Mike Trombetta barn, looking for that maiden victory today. She looks to be the part in this spot after running 2nd last out for twice the claiming tag.

There may just be enough speed in here to accommodate her running style, as she likes to come from off the pace. Now that Kimura is out with an injury, Gage Holmes the Bug girl, takes over as the Pilot.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #5

(1) Happy Bee

This Daughter of Distorted Humor ran lights out last time, winning by 5 lengths. Two prior races to that was in AOC Company, where she ran quite well against some very tough horses, like Toolcat, Battle Charge and Dana's Beauty. She will still have to beat Twila Mae in here, but that was accomplished twice before, so it looks as if she is the play in this spot this afternoon.
