BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(2) LOVELY EVER AFTER

She ran a huge number when she graduated from the claiming ranks, and then came right back to just miss in the Alw 1X. She is in great form, and coming out of one of the hottest barns at the track. She's never been off the board at PID, and today looks as if it is her day. Regular Rider "Rockin' Ronnie Allen" is back in the Irons, a positive sign, as he knows this horse quite well. Look for this Daughter of Midshipman to have a Kodak moment today.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

(1) Crosstown Girl

Sticking with the hot barn today, I'm taking the shot with Crosstown Girl in this race. She ran a big race last out on the raise, and situates herself back into the same spot here today. She gets the meet's leading rider in Morales, and if she can overcome the lack of pace in this race she should be victorious. Rail runners are enjoying a 37% success rate this year.
