BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #8

(2) COUNTY COURT

Conditioner Eddie Rojas' barn is absolutely on fire right now, and this horse is no different. A victor in his first race with this barn, he has already paid for himself. This horse ran second the day of the hostile takeover to Rough Night, and that horse in turn won the second race yesterday. He is 3/3 "ITM" here at PID and the Meet's leading Pilot is back aboard today. All of those aforementioned things are good signs and point to another victory today.

Race #6

(5) Lovely Ever After

She dominated in the MSW last out here at PID, and that was an open race that day. She will now jump back into her own sandbox and play among her own kind. She looks to have an affinity for this strip and has not been off the board as of yet here at PID. There looks as if there is just enough speed in here for her to follow, and if that is true, her tactical speed should fit this situation perfectly.
