BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #5

(5) Dr. STEVE

This son of Jump Start makes his return to PID after a long freshening. He has shown an affinity for this strip, running second in the Mark McDermott after an impressive win in his debut at Parx. He just worked the bullet on August 9th, and after speaking with Trainer Todd Beattie, he said that he is ready to go. A very versatile horse that can pretty much run on any surface, and if he is fit and ready, well, the others better be ready to run, because it will be a tall task to defeat him.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #8

(4) Oldfourtytwo

Conditioner Leland Hays drops his charger back into a more comfortable spot after exiting that salty open $8,500 race. He has been given a freshening after that tough race, and now he should find this spot much more hospitable. He gets leading Rider Pablo Morales at the helm and enough speed to facilitate the proper set-up scenario to obtain victory in today's event.
