BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(6) CREATIVE CHOICE

This horse has had some tough company to keep up with so far this year, but has remained competitive throughout. Perhaps just a tick below what he has been running with, but still decent nonetheless. He was trying hard last out, but ran into a buzzsaw in Flight to Paradise, who came right back to win again, and if that wasn't enough the third place finisher, Jingle Bells was victorious his next out also. He will get some relief in here today against this group, but must remain on top of his game to win.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

(8) Littlebitalily

A solid second last out to a very good "Charlotte the Brit", in that SOC, she enters back aggressively in this $8,500 vs. being in for $13,500 last time. She looks to be the best at this level, with really only Riverside Walk (GB) to contend with, especially after the scratch of Puffer Fish. She will need to lay just off of the pace in here, as there is some very good speed in the race, with Cherokee Chatter and Lawn Dart. If she does that, she looks to have a Kodak Moment.
