BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #8

(9) CEDUNA

Conditioner Tim Girten is going to get aggressive here in this spot and drop Ceduna in for what he bought him for 5 races back. He has superior speed figures as opposed to the majority of his foes in this race, and after his campaign this season at PID. His races prior to today, in which he was competitive, against the likes of P H Factor, A Cotswold Village, and Chic N Wilbur are very impressive. If Girten has him right, it's all over with but the crying.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #4

(2) Gucci Gal

A victim of a massive anti-speed bias last time out, she did all the dirty work on the front end, only to get past late in the race. It was very hot and the track was incredibly against speed horses that day. It won't be anywhere near as hot today and with the Track playing fair the last two days, a victory is within reach. If G. Martinez rides a smart race this afternoon, and lets the cheap speed go, he should have a Kodak Moment with his mount.
