BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(6) SERENE WARRIOR

She ran a very decent race last out against Thisladyisthelaw and very regally bred Cascade Park. Only beaten 6 ¾ lengths in there, she will drop down today into the $12,500 ranks, against lesser foes. She will have plenty of speed in this race today to follow, and that should suit here style to a T, as she likes to stalk the pace and pounce at the right time. She's never been off the board here at PID, and is coming out of one of the hottest barns at the strip.

(2) Get Sassy

Exiting a very tough SOC last out, Get Sassy ran a very respectable 4th against better horses that day. It looks as if she really only has to contend with one foe in here, and that is Lawn Dart. With 10 Victories here at PID, she has shown her affinity for this track and looks to add to that total today. Spieth knows her well, and if he can lay just off the pace with her, she should be able to get a picture today.
