BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(3) INCITATUS

Named after the Roman Emperor Caligula's favorite horse, this gray son of Ironicus steps back into a solid placement here today. Trainer Nelson Figueroa, isn't doing anything crazy here after that solid performance last out. He is being prudent and putting the horse where he has the best chance at victory. Only beaten ½ a length last out, he gets his same Pilot from last race back aboard, and with his very good tactical/Stalking pace, this race should set up perfectly for him.

(5) Samurai Song

Conditioner Adam Rice is exiting a victory in the state bred 1X, and drops into this much softer dated condition race. She is a Woman among girls in this spot and should be the prohibitive favorite in this spot. She is 10/16 ITM over this strip and has shown ability at much higher levels. Gaddiel Martinez is back in the irons, and he has been riding lights out as of late.
