BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #5

(5) YOU MUST BEA WEASLEY

This horse exits the state bred MSW as the victor and now tackles the PA Bred 1X. He has the best last out speed figure, even better than Samurai Song, who just ran in the Princess of Sylmar Stakes last out. It looks as if Kevin Rice has this horse dialed in at the moment, and if he runs the same as last time, he should beat this field, including the filly (Samurai Song) who is taking on the boys today.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #3

(5) Atlantic Sun (GB)

He disappointed last time out, but things just didn't really go his way like he planned. He looks to make amends today against this group and get back to his winning ways. He has been doing that every other race pattern as of late, and today looks as he is switched to on. A 7 time winner over this strip, and in addition he has only been off the board twice here at PID.
