BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(5) SUMMER PALACE

A solid second last out to a very good Flight to Paradise, this horse has nothing to be ashamed of. He was bet down as the favorite, and just missed in that event. He always shows up, no matter what the condition of the race is, and today won't be any exception. Conditioner Leland Hays has been having a good meet this year and is not afraid to put a horse in where he can win. This is a solid spot for this horse, and victory is his if he runs his race.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #3

(6) La Panda

This Filly exits a very tough MSW last time out, and now finds herself in a much easier spot today. She ran against some high dollar horses last time out, but this afternoon she won't have to contend with that, and looks to be the best against this group. She ran a solid race in her debut, and her lone speed figure tops this field. In addition, she was steadied hard last time out going into the turn, and if she has a clean trip she should look forward to a Kodak moment.
