BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #4

(9) GUCCI GAL

Conditioner Cassandra Judd finds herself in a very good spot today with this Filly, and now with 3 late scratches, her horse looks even better. She showed some great resolve last time out, and looked to be home, but a late running "Run Laughing" closed hard to spoil her day. Alencar is back aboard as the Pilot, and her affinity for the distance (4/5 ITM) and the surface makes her a worthy adversary to the others. Judd a 21% claiming trainer always has her horses ready to run, and today this Filly looks good against this group.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #3

(9) Barola

Coming out of a red hot Matt Kintz Barn, Barola has been outstanding here at PID, with 3/4 ITM results here. She beat an emerging horse in Vaccina, to graduate into the winning ranks. That aforementioned Filly is now competitive in MSW Company, so that gives even more credence to Barola. She gets Avery Whisman on as the Pilot today and I don't think that they will beat her in this spot.
