BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #4

(3) JINGLE BELLS

A solid race last out against Flight to Paradise, finishing third that day, moving up a level. This Fennessy charger, will drop back down into the $6,250 level where he just missed two back. That day he was beaten by Adios Bobby, who in turn came right back to win his next outing. He threw a big number up that day, while running at the same distance of 1 mile 70. With the drop and the solid speed figures it may be Christmas in August for Delgado and Fennessy.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

(4) Starship Macys

Claimed three races back for $20k, in which she was in quite a tough spot, she just couldn't get it done and then was dropped in for the $12,500 tag. When she did that, she galloped that day and won by 6 ¾ lengths. The Daughter of Laoban put up a huge number that day, and if she can replicate it, she looks poised for victory. Please note that yesterday, no speed horses won at all. The rain and cooler temps may change things.
