BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(4) HEIRLOOM KITTEN

Exiting a very good race on 8/30 in the 1X, Heirloom Kitten is dropping back into the SOC company, where he has done well in the past here over this strip. He is in great form, and in this SOC he won't have to face Declared or A Cotswold Village, when he lost to them on July 18th. That 1X performance was exceptional, and if he can replicate that strong effort, he is going to get a picture today. The Meet's Leading Rider is back aboard on this very live mount today.

LONGSHOT PLAY

Race #5

(1) Audrina's City

This Filly is by a Sire that absolutely loves this racetrack, Temple City, an emerging Sire line here at PID. She was extremely competitive last out against a very good Cascade Park, only getting beat by 2 ¾ lengths that day at big odds. She is going to drop way down and get cut in half with the claiming tag this afternoon. She will come from off the pace today in a field of speed today and due to that this may be the perfect storm for her.
