BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(6) MEGAN MAKIN MONEY

Exiting a solid race, running 3rd on 8/16, this filly enters right back into the MSW for Conditioner Ron Potts. Gallardo now aboard, she looks to don the cap and gown this afternoon here at PID. She has only lost her two starts in this very young career by less than two lengths, and after speaking with Trainer Ron Potts, I am extremely confident that she will have a "Kodak Moment" here at Presque Isle Downs on the biggest day of the year. Ron Potts is 24% when he comes back after being the Beaten Favorite.

SPOT PLAY of the PLAY

Race #5

(3) The Sinner is You

A Monster here over this surface at PID, he has amassed 8 victories over this surface for Conditioner Eddie Rojas. In addition he is 13/15 ITM at PID, and has never been off the board at the distance (3/3). Third last out against some tough Hombres, he will get a little bit of class relief in here today, as he won't face as tough a crew as his last attempt. Rojas makes the Pilot change to the Meet's Leading Rider in Pablo Morales.
