BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #2

(1) CREATIVE CHOICE

Exiting a very good race on September 6th, Creative Choice comes right back into the N2L at the same level and looks to be the best in this spot. Beaten less than $\frac{3}{4}$ of a length total in his last two starts, he looks to take a picture today. This horse also boasts some solid back class, running against the likes of Jo Jo Hans, Woodchuck, and Harrow. He seems to be a Man among Boys against this group.

LONGSHOT PLAY

Race #1

(6) Extra Medium

Three straight seconds, for this horse in a row for Trainer Michael Rogers and he looks to get "off the duck" with him today here at PID. By an emerging sire line here at PID, these Temple City's just run well here at PID. He has been throwing up big numbers each race over this strip, and I look for him to give a massive effort here today. Watch for this horse to go in the Winner's Circle today.
