Best Bet of the Day

Race #3

(4) AULT

Another one of the Stalwart older geldings at PID, Ault certainly knows his way around this racetrack and of course his way to the Winner's Circle. With 6 victories out of 18 starts over this strip, he is a force to be reckon with, especially in this spot. He has a solid racing style, more than suitable for this event today, and if the track continues to play to stalkers and closers due to the amount of rain that we have had, then he should receive a Kodak moment.

Spot Play of Day

Race #2

(2) Tales of Makenna

A very nice resume on this filly, as she has danced at the big venues in the NYRA Circuit. She drops in here today, way down from her last start at SAR, for $35k, Only beaten 2 ¾ lengths that afternoon, she encountered a very bad break that day, getting jostled around in a bad manner. She should find plenty of class relief in this spot, and looks to be a single in your exotics plays.
