BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(6) VILLAGE QUEEN

Conditioner Ron Potts has this mare in great form as of late. She has already made $31k this year and most importantly she has a great affinity for this racetrack. She is 9/11 ITM and 4/5 at the distance. Spieth is back in the irons, after just getting beat less than a length last time out, by an extremely well bred Cascade Park. She has been in very good company, and should be able to get the victory today.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #3

(1) Creative Choice

An outstanding second last time out against Grey Invasion, he put up a big number that day (81), beating a common foe in here (Richard Hooty), in which he will face again today. Creative Choice has been facing tougher like Flight to Paradise, Mark the Moose and Jingle Bells, so with being said, he should be the play here today. There is just enough speed in this race for him to track, and pounce when it is needed.
